

SWEDWOOD, Poland

3MW Thermal Oil, 2MW Steam, 2009

Bioenergy Plant

The bioenergy plant at Swedwood was installed to take advantage of residual waste from board production.

The furnace fuel consists of broken boards, sawdust, dump from production and extracted dust.

The furnace consists of a water-cooled grate and dust burners.

Fuel moisture is approximately 7%.

Power: 3MW thermal oil, steam 2MW

Customer: Swedwood

Location: Poland

Activity: Production

Year built: 2009

